

Summary

Features of modern Russian language control-evaluation materials in the context of Federal State Education Standard of Primary General Education and their use during monitoring of various levels

Description of control-evaluation materials on Russian language when carrying out monitoring on various levels – federal, regional and municipal, – is being offered in the article. Conditions for monitoring work, according to Education Standard of Primary General Education, are being offered, as well as examples of tasks; their analysis is being carried out.

Keywords: education quality, subjective and meta-subjective materials, independent quality evaluation, outside monitoring, inside monitoring, Russian language control-evaluation materials.

Kuznetsova Marina Ivanovna – Candidate of Pedagogy, lead research associate at Primary Education Department of Institute of Content and Methods of Education of Russian Academy of Education, Moscow.

Evaluation of individual accomplishments in Mathematics and characteristics of educational-research activity development level of Primary School children in conditions of Federal State Education Standard of Primary General Education introduction

One of the principle differences between current standard and former one is differentiated evaluation of every pupil's personal, meta-subjective and subjective education results. The following article reveals these features and first-hand experience in evaluating Primary School pupil's accomplishments during mastering of Mathematics course, and also draws attention towards things teachers should take into consideration in order to prevent basic difficulties that fourth-graders experience during finals completion. To illustrate features of modern control-evaluation materials, final exam sheet on Mathematics is being used, developed in Center of Quality Evaluation of Institute of Content and Methods of Education of Russian Academy of Education (authors: O.A. Rydze, K.A. Krasnyanskaya), as well as methodical application (specifics, instruction of behavior, etc.) and its analytical materials.

Keywords: evaluation of individual Mathematical accomplishments, tasks for finals, tasks of basic level, tasks of higher difficulty level, difficulties during finals tasks completion, ways of their overcoming.

Rydze Oksana Anatolievna – Candidate of Pedagogy, lead research associate of Primary Education Sector of Institute of Content and Methods of Education of Russian Academy of Education, member of research team on Working Program and Planned Results of Mathematics Teaching in Primary School, developed according to Federal State Education Standard of Primary General Education introduction, Moscow.

System of evaluating accomplished planned results on the subject of "Surrounding world"

Composition of control-evaluating materials on the subject of "Surrounding world" is being described. Specifics, added to the system of educational accomplishments evaluation on given subject in the frames of Federal State Education Standard are being listed down; examples of tasks are being given.

Keywords: planned education results on "Surrounding world" subject, finals, evaluation of individual accomplishments, levels of tasks difficulty.

Demidova Marina Yurievna – Candidate of Pedagogy, head of Expert-Analytics Department of Moscow Centre of Education Quality, Moscow.

Approach towards control and evaluation of sensible reading in Primary School

Criteria and parameters of Primary School pupils' reader and literature development, which can be used as a basis by the teacher during evaluation of general basic educational program familiarization by Primary School pupils, are being determined in the article. Reader skills are being developed on subjective and meta-subjective levels. It is shown how this separation is being taken into account in revisions and tests on Literature reading subject, released by "Balass" publishing house.

Keywords: criteria or reader and literature development of Primary School pupils, sensible reading, revision tests on Literature reading subject, Reading finals.

Chindilova Olga Vasilievna – PhD in Pedagogy, professor at Pre-School and Primary School Education Department of Academy of Qualification Increase and Professional Retraining of Education Department Workers;

Buneeva Ekaterina Valerievna – PhD in Pedagogy, co-coordinator of Humanitarian branch in Educational System "School 2100", author of textbooks on Russian language and Literature reading subjects, Moscow.

Content of a Primary School graduate's Mathematical competence

Content of a Primary School graduate's Mathematical competence is being revealed in the article. Analysis of content-forming terms of competency approach – competence and competency – could help determine their outer and inner content characteristics. In approximate content of subjective Mathematical competence of a Primary School graduate, three of its components are being offered: social-personality significance, cognitive and operational-activity components.

Keywords: General Primary Education, Primary school pupil, Primary School graduate, Mathematical competence.

Dubova Marina Veniaminovna – Candidate of Pedagogy, senior lecturer at Pedagogy Department of Mordovia State Pedagogical Institute in the name of M.E. Evseev, Saransk, Mordovia Republic.

Evaluation of Primary Literature education personal results achievements

Possibilities of organizing evaluation of personal planned results on the basis of "Literature reading" course contents are being described in the article; among other things, content of diagnosis tools, including criteria, index, levels of personal development and control-measurement materials is being offered.

Keywords: personal planned results, Primary Literature education, emotional responsiveness, orientation in moral content, aesthetical feelings.

Maksutova Svetlana Danilievna – lecturer at Theory and Methods of Primary Education Department of Bashkir State Pedagogical University in the name of M. Akmulla, Ufa, Bashkortostan Republic.

Artistic method in developing ways of pedagogical interactions in upbringing work

Author's approach towards the process of effectiveness increase in upbringing work in relation to social risks of modern world is being revealed in the article. It's being suggested to use artistic method in global and local forms, which can be perceived as a social-cultural resource of overcoming various conflicting factors in upbringing-educational space of a higher education establishment. Approaches towards developing pedagogical interaction based on a principle of creating musical work of art are being revealed.

Keywords: upbringing work, moral-aesthetical direction, artistic method, spiritual world of individual, inter-subjectivity, principles of creating a work of art, sonata allegro, dichotomous cultural interaction, Russian identity.

Sitnikova Oksana Vadimirovna – Candidate of Pedagogy, senior lecturer at Pedagogy and Pedagogical Technologies Department of Pedagogical Institute of North Kavkaz Federal University, Stavropol.

Technology of creating research situations during lessons in Primary School

Technology of creating research situations during lessons in Primary School is being revealed in the article. Research situations offers Primary School pupil an enrichment of personal experience with ways of solving issues, which becomes possible with step-by-step approach towards working with information. Importance of mastering these approaches consists of them helping a person with becoming successful in various trades of life.

Keywords: research situation, research issue, meta-subjective results, information, personal experience, ways of action.

Nikitina Eleonora Konstantinovna – Candidate of Pedagogy, senior lecturer, professor at Theory and History of Pedagogy Department of Moscow City Pedagogical University;

Kovalenko Olga Aleksandrovna – Primary School teacher at school № 1460, Moscow.

On some methods of Primary School pupils' work with educational-scientific and personal text during Russian language lesson

Some methods of comprehending educational-scientific text and ways of recycling personal text that pupils master on Russian language lessons under teacher's supervision, are being considered in the article. The skill of text recycling is one of the multi-purpose skills of sensible reading, which develops among Primary School pupils' mainly through Russian language course means.

Keywords: ways of text recycling, scientific-educational text, ways of studying reading, ways of comprehending reading, Russian language lesson.

Bondarenko Galina Igorevna – headmaster of school № 258, Moscow.

Significance of school area interior décor in pupils' artistic culture development

Issues of artistic interior décor of school area necessity are being revealed in the article. The author considers artistic transformation of surrounding material world in school an important part of developing artistic culture among pupils.

Keywords: artistic culture, interior, artistic décor, surrounding world.

Volkova Tatiana Vyacheslavovna – post-graduate at Painting and Composition Academic Department of Art Department of Moscow City Pedagogical University, Moscow.